Enunciation	Audience can hear every word spoken; and nothing sounds jumbled.	Audience can hear most words spoken, some are jumbled or slurred.	Audience can hear some words spoken, but you are speaking too fast, and clarity is missing.	Umm.... what are you saying?
Projection	Audience can hear every word spoken; and nothing sounds jumbled.	Audience can hear most words spoken, some are jumbled or slurred.	Audience can hear some words spoken.	Umm.... what are you saying?
Concentration/ In character	Maintained character through the whole play, even when you were speaking.	Maintained character through the whole play, even when you were speaking.	Maintained character through some of the play, some cues were followed.	Maintained character only when speaking, lost cues or track of place.
Cooperation (please disregard section if creating a monologue)	Group works well; allowed for each person in the group to have their time to shine.	Group mostly works well; allowed for each person in the group to have their time to shine.	Group mostly works well; people are still speaking over each other at times.	Group doesn't seem to work well together; people are speaking over each other
Technical (not important for final mark, but it would be nice to try this section)	Excellent editing. Video has a title and participants slide. Shaking is minimal. Sound effects/music were added.	Nice editing. Video has a title slide. Shaking is minimal.	Very little editing. A little shaking during recording.	No editing was done, video had many avoidable mistakes. No title.
